HOLIDAY CHEER AT THE AUGUSTINE HOTEL

The Augustine Hotel is celebrating the holiday season unlike any other! Escape the winter weather and walk into a festive and luxuriously cozy Christmas oasis as we deck the halls and tantalise your senses. Let yourself relax as you take in the delightful cinnamon and mulled-apple aromas while our staff welcomes you with spiced svařák and freshly-made minced pies. Take in the artistry of our one-of-a-kind Bohemian crystal Christmas tree, designed especially for the Augustine by coveted Czech artist, Bořek Šípek.

The luxury, though, does not end in the lobby! All bedrooms and suites in the hotel boast stunning views over Prague's winter wonderland, including the city's courtyards, the Monastery chapel or a snow-capped Prague Castle. And in the spectacular Thomas Suite, you can take in the view while listening to the soothing sounds of the wood crackling inside your very own in-room fireplace.

If you are looking to hold a Christmas party, or perhaps just bring your friends together for a special dinner or reception, then read on to find out just what else the hotel can offer you. You can be sure it is worth a visit over the Christmas season.

LICHFIELD CAFÉ, RESTAURANT & BAR: THE FINEST IN HOLIDAY DINING

The Augustine Hotel is home to the Lichfield Café, Restaurant & Bar, one of the most stylish and elegant restaurants in the city and the ideal place to host your Christmas dinner, New Year's Eve celebrations or any other special event.

The restaurant is named after the famous British photographer, Lord Patrick Lichfield, who was a long time friend of the owner of the Augustine Hotel, Sir Rocco Forte. Lord Lichfield was indelibly associated with the world of glamour and chic that he inhabited with conspicuous success for more than forty years, and the Lichfield restaurant appeals to the very same sector of Czech society that would have attracted his eye; the glamorous and chic, the stars of stage and screen, politicians and sports stars, as well as those ordinary men and women who are going about their daily business, but who enjoy that little touch of luxury that the restaurant aims to provide.

The Lichfield restaurant is available over Christmas for private parties of up to 100 people, as well as individual dinners or lunches of up to twelve. Set menus start at 1390 CZK including beverages and wines, and all guests can expect a number of treats and surprises during the Christmas season, including a traditional Christmas market and children's St. Nicholas Day festivities on the 5th of December.
